

Pam J. Frail

CV... or what I did last year

2009 was full and fun and productive. It was a great year of group shows and dabbling in other mediums. The results were some new adventures in sustainable products. I love my new recycled vinyl record album line of jewellery and am working on a new line for this year. 2010 is shaping up to be even more exciting. Stay tuned for an updated website and a blog documenting some international travels with my art collective 'seven'.

I hope we cross paths this year,
Pam

19th Annual Acadia Community Art Show

Jan. 16 – March 3rd 2010
Acadia University Art Gallery
Wolfville, NS
artgallery@acadiu.ca

Printmaking workshop with Bob Hainstock

Oct – Dec, 2009
<http://www.theprintmaker.ca>

Metal Arts Guild of Nova Scotia Annual Competition and Show

Oct. 2009 Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, Halifax, NS
<http://www.metalartsguildofnovascotia.com>

'Awakenings' Group show with seven

Sep. 18 – Oct. 18, 2009 Harvest Art Gallery, Wolfville, NS
Visit the Facebook page

Encaustic Workshop with Lynn Rotin

July, 2009

<http://www.lynnrotin.com/home.htm>

Uncommon Common Art 2009

An art exhibit in nature

A group show with Alliance of Kings Artists

www.valleyarts.ca

LARGE small... experimenting with scale 2009

May 15 Visual Arts Nova Scotia Regional Show

Acadia University Art Gallery, Wolfville, NS

<http://vans.ednet.ns.ca/>

'Modernism'

A spring continuing education course at Acadia University

With Professor Donna Jean Louis